

Academy: adding valuable competence and support to the energy sector

Through our competence and solution oriented services, we reinforce and improve our customer's skills to reach their goals.

Courses:

Simulator/process

- Introduction to control systems
- Production start up and shut down through use of customer specific or generic simulator
- Scenario- and solution training with customers or generic simulator
- Compressor course, start up and operation
- Extended Platform operation
- Risk Understanding of HC leaks - OLF guide line 121

ERM/Crisis management

- Crisis management - Basic
- Crisis management - Refresher
- Management and ERM for control room operators
- Next-of-Kin handling and support

HSE

- HSE and Culture

Maintenance

- FMEA/Reliability engineer course
- Shutdown for maintenance

Other courses

- Update of rules and regulations for foreign managers
- Introduction to Oil and Gas production
- Drilling for non drillers

Customer specific courses

- The courses are adapted to customers' needs so that they may use their own systems and procedures. This provides a targeted learning effect.
- Academy develop on demand courses within all fields of the energy sector, using internal top competence
- Courses will be run in English or Norwegian according to customers needs.

Our instructors:

- Competent, with extensive practical experience
- Work on a daily basis within the professions they teach
- Got extended support through professional colleagues and wide network
- Quality focused and dedicated power to perform